Short Items From Fort Thomas

All who passed by the "exam" doctors are having a good time, but those who failed are looking blue.

Talk about good looking women. Hal "G" boys are not coming home till fall. For there sure are some good looking in and around Ft. Thomas.

Good thing all those "exam" doctors were 250 pounders. For some of the boys were awful set up and could have paddled some of them had they been smaller.

Jimmie, we sure do appreciate the Bee. It makes us feel like we were closer to Dear Old Earlinton.

Paul Norris King and Marvin Mitchell are the trouble shooters for the Hospital Corps. Bill Fugate is also nifty with the Hypo needle.

A. Vinson is all in from his last shot in the arm.

It's a common thing now in Ft. Thomas to hear "Look out there that's my sore arm" or see the fellows sleep with that sore arm on top of himself.

Maj. Rodgers and his clerk Reynolds from Co. E are the busy guys in the 2nd Battalion. You can see them running from Barrack to Headquarters all day long.

The Thirsty Third beat the Fighting First at the diamond Sunday P. M. The score as follows:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 - R.H.E.
T. T. 1 0 0 0 1 1 0 0 0 3 5
F. F. 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 1 2 6
Some team as well as beer drinkers the Third puts out. "G" and "E" were both represented.

Corp. Clyde Hamby has been appointed in Corp. Rex Hamby's place as war correspondent on account of Corp. Rex Hamby's failure in examination.

Capt Wilson is also on the busy list as well as Lieut Miles.

WITHDRAWS FROM RACE
W. N. Martin Decides to Decline to Run For Congress

W. N. Martin has decided to withdraw from the race for the Republican nomination for Congress from this district. His letter of withdrawal has been forwarded to the Secretary of State, although he had the good fortune of securing the first place on the ballot. He expects to do all in his power for the success of the ticket this fall.

LETTER FROM MRS. MARY JANE LAWRENCE
To the Earlinton Bee: Gentlemen—

Kindly permit me through the columns of your paper to express my thanks to my many friends of Earlinton for their appreciation of my Father, John Lawrence, and the kindnesses shown me in this the saddest hour of my life I wish it were possible for me to thank each one personally but as that is impossible take this means of doing so.

I wish especially to thank The St. Bernard Coal Co., George Atkinson, Dan and John Evans, Dave Smith and wife from whose home my father was buried, Bro. Grant for his services, Jas Rash and Choir of singers also John Rule and wife for special favors, The friends for their floral offerings.

I am especially grateful to the body of men who met us at the train and took charge of my father's remains. Wishing still to be remembered in prayer and praying Gods blessings on all.

I am gratefully and thankfully,
Mary Jane Murphy,

I OWE MY HEALTH

To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Washington Park, Ill.—"I am the mother of four children and have suffered with female trouble, backache, nervous spells and the blues. My children's loud talking and romping would make me so nervous I could just tear everything to pieces and I would ache all over and feel so sick that I would not want anyone to talk to me at times. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills restored me to health and I want to thank you for the good they have done me. I have had quite a bit of trouble and worry but it does not affect my youthful looks. My friends say 'Why do you look so young and well?' I owe it all to the Lydia E. Pinkham medicine."

—Mrs. ROBT. STORIE, Moore Avenue, Washington Park, Illinois.

We wish every woman who suffers from female troubles, nervousness, backache or the blues could see the letters written by women made well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have any symptom about which you would like to know write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for helpful advice given free of charge.

COUNTY TEACHERS MEET AT DAWSON
Institute to Convene Next Monday for Session of Five Days

The Hopkins County Teachers' Institute will convene at Dawson Springs next Monday morning at 10 o'clock and will remain in session until Friday afternoon. Superintendent of schools L. R. Ray is very anxious for a large attendance and requests all of the teachers of the county to be present promptly on time Monday morning.

Prof. Leeper, of the Western Kentucky Normal at Bowling Green has been secured as instructor. The session promises to be a very instructive one and the teachers should not fail to attend.

DID YOU CUT THE WEEDS?
If not, have this important work done this week and save yourself future trouble and perhaps serious sickness in the family. There is nothing more conducive to good health than clean sanitary premises. Cut the weeds, pick up the old tin cans and other rubbish, clean up the back yards and alleys using a plentiful supply of lime and you will be surprised how much better the place will look and how much better you will feel. Do this before the inspection committee comes around on July 24th.

GOOD PROGRESS IS BEING MADE
The heavy rains of last week delayed the work being done on the streets of the city to some extent but good progress is being made now and the city streets will be in good shape in a short time.

ALL A MATTER OF HEARSAY

Negro Prisoner Was Most Careful to Refrain From Making Any Incriminating Admissions.

Having had "advice of counsel" before taking the witness stand, a negro, defendant in Justice Casimir Welch's court at Kansas City was a model of caution when tried on a charge of drawing a knife in a fight.

"Ever arrested before?" asked the defendant prosecutor.

"Ah been jugged a few times," the defendant admitted.

"Ever been in the penitentiary?" A pause.

"Ah don't sure know whether Ah have been in the penitentiary or not?" he demanded. The negro cast an appealing glance at his lawyer.

"Well, they say Ah have," Justice Welch grinned and fell into the humor.

"When do they say you went down the river?" he asked.

"They all say it be about 12 years ago."

"And how long did they say you stayed there?"

"Five year, that's what they say."

"And according to this rumor, or neighborhood gossip; why were you sent down?"

"Well, judge, they done say there be a pocketbook, one too many wives and other things as Ah couldn't snickly count for. But 'member, judge, Ah ain't 'mittin' nothin'."

The defendant will spend six months in the county jail, but he did his best to heed the warning about "incriminating admissions."

SERGEANT'S AIM WAS TRUE
When He Bowled Over the Mexican Leader the "Greasers" Lost All Desire to Continue Conflict.

"Dad" Miller, the old one-legged shoemaker of Columbus, likes to talk about what the soldiers did, writes Gregory Mason in the Outlook. He tells how they came in from the eastern end of the town, each man dropping on his knee and covering an enemy with a cool, unburied precision, quite different from the blind, quick shooting of the already weakening Mexicans.

Gradually the invaders were swept across the plaza and out to the rising ground southwest of the town by the handful of disciplined American regulars.

"One o' the three Lopez brothers," says the venerable leather worker, "stood on that ledge rise to the west o' the station wavin' a big sword an' tryin' to rally his cowardly companions. Major Tompkins an' Sergeant Foley were right in front o' my store watchin' 'em."

"Can you get that feller, sergeant?" asked the major.

"I've never missed, sir," says the sergeant, an' he gets off his horse, draws a slow bead an' drops the big feller with the sword. That took the heart out o' them."

The Argonauts of 1854.

On account of a very foolish address, carried over by the lord mayor and merchants of London to Louis Napoleon, after the coup d'etat which made him emperor, and a mischievous, as well as ludicrous, deputation of Quakers, who, under pretense of being peace-mongers, went to pay homage to the Emperor Nicholas at St. Petersburg, and to persuade him that he might do what he liked with Turkey, without any danger of English interference, I laid a bill on the table of the house of lords to prohibit the subjects of this country from having any intercourse with foreign governments in public affairs, unless with the sanction of the crown. I had as a precedent an act of the American congress, and for the principle I had the high authority of Mr. Burke, in denouncing as treasonable the mission by Mr. Fox of Mr. Adair, to the Empress Catherine, at the time of the Russian armament.

—From Campbell's "Lives of the Lord Chancellors."

Thoroughly Disinfected.
In the days when the Manchu dynasty was tottering, two students cut off some of their fingers as a protest to the government's delay in granting a parliament. Such forms of protests are to the Chinese what writing a letter to the paper is to the Englishman. When these students were taken to the Union Medical college the doctors remonstrated with them for misusing their bodies and running the danger of infection as well.

"Oh, you needn't fear on that point," said these students, "we boiled the knife first."—World Outlook.

Dye of a Thousand Years.
Now that the difficulty of procuring dyes is growing so acute, American manufacturers are looking about for new methods of coloring. A return to the ancient earth dyes has been suggested, and to this end a collection of Peruvian fabrics, the designs of which are said to be a thousand years old, are being examined and analyzed. One fragment is of green and brown stripes, and the colors are as vivid as if they had been set yesterday.

Women Urged to Raise Chickens.
Householders throughout England are being urged to keep a few chickens to increase the home production of eggs. Each year in normal times England imports 258,000,000 eggs. The women's section of the National Poultry society, which is behind the movement, declares that much waste could be avoided if householders had a few chickens to which to throw scraps from the table.

Long's Bread
Becoming Famous

It is not generally known by Earlinton people that M. B. Long's bread is rapidly becoming widely known as the best bread on the market. Mr. Long ships both bread and cakes to various points in Kentucky and Tennessee, and has congratulatory letters from a number of dealers in both states. The Bon-Ton bakery is one of the best in this end of the state and that is one reason why the business is so satisfactory and increasing so rapidly. Moral—Try Long's Bread it is the Best.

There comes a time in the life of most men when they see their own imperfections more vividly than others see them. It is then that they are on the way to becoming better men of nobler deeds.
